Former UB Mingo breaks national decathlon record; current Mingoe wins U-20 girls 100m

NASSAU – Former University of The Bahamas multi-event specialist Ken Mullings broke current UB multi-event specialist Kendrick Thompson’s national record in the decathlon over the weekend at the B.A.A.A. National Championships at The Thomas A. Robinson National Stadium.

Mullings accumulated 7734 points to win the two-day ten-discipline event. The previous record held by Thompson was 7644 points and was set at the B.A.A.A. Easter Classic at the same stadium.

Mullings had strong performances in the discus, pole vault and javelin to propel him to the new national record and the national championship.

Thompson ended the event with 7505 points to take second place. Maicel Uibo representing Adidas placed third with 5471 points.

National Champion

UB sprinter Paige Stuart won the national championship in the under-20 women’s 100m event. Her time 12.35 seconds.

“Paige has been working hard through the season and I’m proud of her performance,” UB head coach Ednal Rolle said.

Stuart’s closest competitor was more than half a second behind her at 12.69 seconds.

Open 200m

Romica Josey turned in a strong showing at the National Championship as well. She took 4th place in 26.22 seconds in the open women 200m event.
