Assistant/Associate Professor, Economics and Finance

The Faculty of Business Hospitality and Tourism Studies is pleased to invite applications for the position of Assistant/Associate Professor, Accounting. This full-time appointment will begin 2 August 2018.

The Department of Accounting, Banking and Finance is seeking a faculty colleague with a record of excellence in teaching undergraduate and graduate students and a clear record of research and scholarship. The Department is a nationally recognised consortium of professors, corporate leaders and qualified students who are dedicated to teaching, research and learning experiences that contribute to the knowledge base of the field and society. Graduates pursue international accreditation in banking offered by institutes in the United Kingdom, the United States and Canada and are able to sit a number of professional examinations offered by the Canadian Securities Institute. Many graduates have successfully completed the Certified Financial Analyst (CFA) Examination. Our graduates obtain positions in the financial services sector and pursue careers as personal bankers, personal banking representatives, wealth managers, consumer lenders, commercial bankers and in central banking. We encourage applications from professionals who can help us continue to prepare exceptional and ethical students.

Responsibilities. Teach a variety of undergraduate and graduate courses in banking, economics and finance; engage in research and scholarly activities; assist in securing external grants and other funding opportunities; engage in curriculum review, revision and development; participate in student recruitment and advisement; and serve on departmental, school, university-wide and external committees.

Qualifications. Candidates must have an earned PhD or DBA in Banking, Economics or Finance from an accredited institution as well as teaching experience at the undergraduate and graduate levels; professional or managerial experience in a related area; and evidence of research and scholarship. A working knowledge of computer software relevant to the discipline such as Excel, Minitab and SPSS (Statistical Packet of the Social Sciences) would be an asset.

Setting. The University of The Bahamas (UB) is a vital catalyst for national development. Chartered on 10th November 2016, UB had its genesis in The College of The Bahamas which was established in 1974. Since 1995, the institution's academic offerings have expanded through the introduction of baccalaureate degree programmes offered across a broad range of approximately 60 majors. Master's degree programmes have included an MBA and an MSc in Reading and Inclusive Education as well as graduate degree programmes offered in collaboration with various US universities. UB operates from the Oakes Field Campus and the Grosvenor Close Centre in New Providence; UB-North in Grand Bahama; and the Gerace Research Facility in San Salvador. Additional sites are planned for throughout the archipelago.

Application. Application materials should include:

1. A cover letter describing academic philosophy and vision, research and publications;
2. Copies of academic qualifications;
3. Copies of transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate degree programmes completed;
4. A current and complete curriculum vitae;
5. Copy of relevant pages of a valid passport showing photo ID, passport number and expiration date;
6. Three letters of reference;
7. Completed UB Application for Employment Form.

To Apply: Apply electronically at facultyapply@ub.edu.bs. Only electronic submissions will be accepted. Attach the following documents with your electronic submission: cover letter; academic qualifications; transcripts; curriculum vitae; copy of relevant pages of valid passport; three letters of reference; and a completed UB Application for Employment form. Additional materials will be required of shortlisted candidates. For additional information or informal inquiries, contact provostoffice@ub.edu.bs
