Assistant/Associate Professor, Architecture

The Faculty of Pure and Applied Sciences is pleased to invite applications for the position of Assistant/Associate Professor, Architecture. This full-time appointment will begin 1 August 2019.

The Architecture and Technology Department is seeking a faculty member to teach in a new five-year Bachelor of Architecture degree programme. Applicants will have demonstrated the potential for excellence in teaching, design and professional practice, creative and/or scholarly works. The successful candidate will be expected to establish a research/design agenda that incorporates sustainable design, energy and other conservation considerations with a focus on small island states. Candidates with expertise in either building services and technology, architectural design and digital media or urban and regional planning are especially encouraged to apply. The successful candidate will teach architectural design studio courses and other related courses, advise students and assist in the revision of programmes and courses. Candidates are required to have a M.Arch. or terminal degree in architecture or a related field from an accredited university. They must also be a licensed professional with a minimum of three years of full-time tertiary teaching or professional practice.

Responsibilities. Teach architectural design studio and other courses; engage in research and scholarly activities; assist in securing external grants and other funding opportunities; engage in curriculum review, revision and development; participate in student recruitment and advisement; serve on departmental, school, university-wide and external committees.

Qualifications. Candidates must have an earned Master of Architecture or terminal degree in Architecture or a closely related field from an accredited institution; must be a licensed professional; must have a minimum of three years full-time tertiary teaching or professional practice; and evidence of creative and/or scholarly work. Applicants who demonstrate the ability to establish a research/design agenda that incorporates sustainable design, energy and other conservation considerations with a focus on small island states will be given special consideration.

Setting. University of The Bahamas (UB) is a vital catalyst for national development. Chartered on 10th November 2016, UB had its genesis in The College of The Bahamas which was established in 1974. Since 1995, the institution's academic offerings have expanded through the introduction of baccalaureate degree programmes offered across a broad range of approximately 60 majors. Master's degree programmes have included an MBA and an MSc in Reading and Inclusive Education as well as graduate degree programmes offered in collaboration with various US universities. UB operates from the Oakes Field Campus and the Grosvenor Close Centre in New Providence; UB-North in Grand Bahama; and the Gerace Research Facility in San Salvador. Additional sites are planned for throughout the archipelago.

Application. Application materials should include:

1. A cover letter describing academic philosophy and vision, research and publications;
2. Copies of academic certificates;
3. Copies of transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate degree programmes completed;
4. A current and complete curriculum vitae;
5. Copy of relevant pages of a valid passport showing photo ID, passport number and expiration date;
6. Names and contact information of three persons who can provide letters of reference;
7. Completed UB Application for Employment Form found at this link:
