Qualifications. Candidates must have an earned PhD/EdD in Law and Criminal Justice from an accredited institution; excellence in tertiary level teaching experience; evidence of research and scholarship.

Setting. University of The Bahamas (UB) is a vital catalyst for national development. Chartered on 10th November 2016, UB had its genesis in The College of The Bahamas which was established in 1974. Since 1995, the institution's academic offerings have expanded through the introduction of baccalaureate degree programmes offered across a broad range of approximately 60 majors. Master's degree programmes have included an MBA and an MSc in Reading and Inclusive Education as well as graduate degree programmes offered in collaboration with various US universities. UB operates from the Oakes Field Campus and the Grosvenor Close Centre in New Providence; UB-North in Grand Bahama; and the Gerace Research Facility in San Salvador. Additional sites are planned for throughout the archipelago.

Application. Application materials should include:

1. A current and complete curriculum vitae;
2. Copy of relevant pages of a valid passport showing photo ID, passport number and expiration date;
3. Names and contact information of three persons who can provide letters of reference;
