University of The Bahamas, Commonwealth of The Bahamas

Date Posted	February 2023
Type	Three-year contract with an option to renew
Salary	Negotiable
Employment Type	Full Time

The Small Island Sustainability Programme is pleased to invite applications for the position of Assistant/Associate Professor Marine Science (UB-North). The full-time appointment will commence August 2023.

Responsibilities: The faculty member must have a strong commitment to teaching and research. These include, but are not limited to, marine conservation, sustainable fisheries, ecosystems dynamics, seagrass, mangroves, coral reef ecology, climate change and marine pollution. The successful candidates will teach graduate and undergraduate courses in marine sciences and sustainability, assist in the development and review of programmes and courses, as well as advise students. Candidates who demonstrate the ability to engage in multidisciplinary research that includes social scientists, economists, local communities and policymakers are especially encouraged to apply.

Qualifications: Candidates must have a terminal degree in marine science, biology, fisheries, oceanography, environmental science or a closely related field from an accredited university.

Setting: The University of The Bahamas (UB) is a vital catalyst for national development. Chartered on 10th November 2016, UB had its genesis in The College of The Bahamas which was established in 1974. Since 1995, the institution's academic offerings have expanded through the introduction of baccalaureate degree programmes offered across a broad range of approximately 60 majors. Master's degree programmes have included an MBA and an MSc in Reading and Inclusive Education as well as graduate degree programmes offered in collaboration with various US universities. UB operates from the Oakes Field Campus and the Grosvenor Close Centre in New Providence; UB-North in Grand Bahama; and the Gerace Research Facility in San Salvador. Additional sites are planned for throughout the archipelago.

Application: Application materials should include:

1. A completed University of The Bahamas Application for Employment Form (www.ub.edu.bs/hrprofile);
2. A letter of interest (highlighting work experience and accomplishments relevant to the position);
3. An up-to-date curriculum vitae or resume;
4. Librarianship philosophy statement;
5. Evidence of excellence in librarianship;
6. Evidence of research and scholarship;
7. Evidence of service to the profession;
8. Unofficial transcripts (official transcripts needed for employment);

AND

9. At least three confidential, professional references.

To Apply: Apply electronically at facultyapply@ub.edu.bs noting the position in the subject field. Only electronic submissions will be accepted. Attach all of the above listed in one electronic file.
