GUEST SPEAKER:

Mrs. Patrice Ellis

A Registered Nurse (RN) by profession and an alumna of Liberty University, Mrs. Patrice Ellis is caring and compassionate. She is blessed to be able to continuously display these characteristics as she works alongside her husband, Bishop Neil C. Ellis in full-time, Christian ministry.

She is the Founder and CEO of Manners Matter Bahamas Ltd., that cultivates an awareness in the lives of children and teens that “manners do matter” and “confidence is cool”. She is also the Founder and Director of The Etiquette & Image Institute (a division of Manners Matter) which specializes in helping companies and individuals polish their image and gain a competitive edge through a transformation from being unnoticed to being unforgettable.

Mrs. Ellis has earned certifications as a Corporate and Children’s Etiquette Consultant from The American School of Protocol, the Etiquette & Leadership Institute as well as her most recent accomplishment with the International Etiquette and Protocol Academy of London which complements her participation in the Finishing Touch program with Minding Manners International, one of the leading Finishing Schools in Europe. She is also the author of two books, “A Woman’s Guide to Excellence and Elegance” and “Mommy Please Talk to Me”.

While she is proud of her many accomplishments, including having recently obtained a master’s degree in Marriage & Family Counseling, Patrice sees her role as a wife and mother as her most significant. She is an incredible example of the Proverbs 31 woman, and constantly seeks the Lord for wisdom, strength and the ability to juggle her many roles in a manner that will glorify Him and bless those that she has been called to serve.
