

Assistant/Associate Professor, Secondary Education
University of The Bahamas, Commonwealth of The Bahamas

Date Posted	February 2024
Type	Contractual with an option to renew
Salary	Commensurate with qualifications
Employment Type	Full-time

The University of the Bahamas invites applications for a full-time faculty position in the College of Education and Social Sciences. The candidate's academic appointment will be at our northern campus on the island of Grand Bahama. UB North is a branch campus within the University of the Bahamas System and is being strategically developed to offer a number of selected programs that uniquely positions it for positive growth. We are assembling a strong contingent of talented, creative and enthusiastic faculty who can benefit from and contribute to our exciting ongoing academic (re)building/development process.

The successful candidate will possess strong expertise in secondary education. They will introduce students to traditional and contemporary pedagogical philosophies and guide them in the generation and application of learning objectives, instructional activities and assessments.

Faculty should exhibit a willingness to collaborate across disciplines and contribute to the university's collegial intellectual environment. He/she will be expected to teach and conduct research that reflects the interests of the faculty member and the needs of the institution.

Qualifications:

- Ph.D. degree in Secondary Education or related field is preferred however candidates with Masters degrees are also encouraged to apply as all aspects of qualifications will be considered in selecting a successful candidate;
- Commitment to and excellence in teaching. Demonstrated record of providing students with the knowledge, attitudes, behaviors, and skills they require to perform their tasks effectively in the classroom, school, and wider community;

- Demonstrated ability to direct students in various subject-specific teaching strategies;
- A strong research record appropriate to the level of appointment;
- Demonstrated ability to balance excellent teaching, scholarship, and service.

Candidates must be teacher trained with experiences in teacher education and curriculum development with strong knowledge of language acquisition theories and methodologies. Excellent communication and collaboration skills are a must.

Teaching Requirements

The successful candidate is likely to be teaching some of the courses below:

EDUC318 – Classroom Techniques and Management; EDUC325 – Foundations and Fundamentals of Education; EDUC329 – Educational EDUC361 – Science Teaching in the Secondary School I; EDUC388 – Assessment in Education; EDUC350 – Business Studies in the Secondary School I; EDUC436 – Literacy in the Secondary School; EDUC450 – Business Studies in the Secondary School II; EDUC461 – Science Teaching in the secondary School;

Appointment Terms:

- 3-year contractual engagement with expected extensions
- The anticipated start date: August 1st 2024
- Salary will be commensurate with qualifications

How to Apply:

Submit electronically all of the below listed in one email to ubnpresident@ub.edu.bs noting the position in the subject field.

Only electronic submissions will be accepted.

For additional information refer your inquiries to jamilah.thompson@ub.edu.bs

- Copies of academic qualifications;
- Copies of all relevant graduate and undergraduate degree program transcripts;
- Current curriculum vitae;
- Copies of relevant pages of passport, showing photo, passport number and expiration date;
- Three reference letters;
- Completed application form. Application forms are available at:
(<https://www.ub.edu.bs/wp-content/uploads/2016/10/UB-Application-for-Employment-Faculty.pdf>)