Private Undergraduate & Graduate Scholarships

Spring 2023 | Apply Today | Deadline 27th January 2023

UB currently has several private scholarships available for full-time and part-time undergraduate and graduate students who meet the requirements. These awards may be used to cover tuition, books, laptops, paid internships, study abroad opportunities and more.

If you are an undergraduate or graduate student, take advantage of the scholarship opportunities below.

The Holzman Family Exuma Scholarship Endowment Fund

In keeping with the wishes of Mr. James L. Holzman and children to honour his wife and their mother, Mrs. Jonnie Holzman, an endowed scholarship will encompass her continued passion for young adults through education and the arts. Through the transformative power of education, this scholarship will leave an indelible mark on the lives of students from Exuma and positively impact future generations.

Award Details

This unique four-year scholarship is designed to identify outstanding students from Exuma and foster their intellectual growth, refine their interpersonal skills, and enhance their relationship with the University.

This $3,500 annual award provides one (1) four-year scholarship to a qualified freshmen student renewable annually for up to four years if the student maintains the academic standards while exercising practical leadership in university activities and the wider community.

A 2.50 Grade Point Average (GPA) is required and participation in at least one leadership programme and community service on the island of Exuma.

Lyford Cay Foundations Scholarships

As a legacy donor, Lyford Cay Foundations, a valued partner of University of The Bahamas has generously provided funding for several awards now available to cover academic awards, study abroad scholarships and academic enhancement at Oakes Field and UB-North campuses.

Award Details
